

This nose assembles exactly like the model's original nose. The only difference is the yellow colored top parts. The yellow indicates that the missile is nuclear tipped!

This is based on photographs of the training SCUD-B missile in the possession of the NNSA, whose instructors and staff have been a wonderful source of information and measurements! Thank you!

Eric Truax